Sometimes the prospect of travel with the kids is a concern. So why not consider locations that both the adults and young ones can enjoy equally?

Many hotels and resorts are positioned with the entire family in mind. Take for instance, the Beverly Garland Hotel located in Universal City, Calif. It is managed by Holiday Inn and they offer families standard rooms for the adults along with Kids Suites. These rooms offer a living area with a king size bed and a separate area with bunk beds, a flat-screen TV and a small desk for children. Parents will enjoy the extra privacy that these rooms offer, as well as the extra space. The rooms also have a balcony, so that parents can have even more privacy.

The Beverly Garland Hotel is tucked away below the foothills of the Hollywood Hills with convenient access to Universal Studios, Universal City Walk, the Hollywood Bowl, the Kodak Theatre, Grauman's Chinese Theatre with the movie stars hand and foot prints in cement in the front foyer and the Hollywood Walk of Fame and more.

The property is also close to the Metrorail taking you to Hollywood, downtown Los Angeles and the mid-Wilshire area. It also provides free shuttle service to the theme parks. I understand the rates are moderate.

Not far away is Orange County, which offers Disneyland and Knotts Berry Farm. These theme parks are fun for all.
